

CHAPTER 78.

CHAP. 78.

AN ACT entitled, an Act to Amend the Charter of the Bel-Air Turnpike Company. Passed April 14, 1852.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Bel-Air Turnpike company is hereby authorised and empowered to open and make the grade of its road thirty-three feet wide, with the artificial part thereof seventeen feet in width, instead of sixty feet grade and twenty feet of artificial road, as provided in the seventh section of the charter of said company. Authorised to widen road.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said company is authorised to put up such gates or double gates, on its road, as the said company shall deem expedient, for the collection of tolls; Provided, that said company shall not take or charge other or greater tolls than are allowed by its original charter and this act. Authorised to put up gates. Proviso.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That whenever the toll authorised to be charged as aforesaid, shall make the fraction of a cent, it shall be lawful for said company to charge and receive a whole cent instead of such fraction, and that the charge for cattle driven over said road shall be at the rate of ten cents for every twenty heads. Rate of toll.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all persons whatsoever travelling on said road, shall be chargeable with the tolls fixed by the original charter and this act; Provided, that no funeral procession, or person passing from one part of his or her farm to another part thereof, shall be chargeable with toll. Tolls fixed by original charter. Proviso.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all provisions of the original charter, so far as they are inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect from its passage. Inconsistent provisions of original charter, repealed.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Legislature reserves the right to alter, amend, modify or repeal this act at pleasure. Right reserved.
