

1812.

plot to be returned.

Proviso.

Expense—to be levied on the county—
overseer.

Compensation
of commissioners.

road leading from Winters' Run near Price's mill, to the White House, so as to pass by the said Price's mill, and thence in the best direction that the nature of the ground will admit of, so as to intersect the old road near a small house owned by a certain Walter Bull; and the said commissioners shall lay out, survey, mark and bound the same, which shall not exceed two perches in width, and a correct plot of the same return under their or a majority of their hands and seals, to the clerk of Harford county court, to be by him recorded: Provided always, AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said road shall not be laid anew through the lands of any person unless the consent of the owner or owners of such land be first had and obtained.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the levy court of Harford county be, and they are hereby directed, upon the plot of such road being returned to the clerk's office of said county, to levy such sum of money as they in their discretion shall deem necessary for opening and making conveniently passable the said road, and shall appoint an overseer for opening the same; and the said road shall hereafter be kept in repair as other public roads in said county are kept in repair.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners shall have and be allowed by the levy court of Harford county, one dollar and fifty cents per day, for each and every day that they shall attend in discharge of their duties under the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 102.

Passed Dec.
19, 1812.

An act authorising the Levy Court of Cecil county to open a road in said county.

Commissioners may be appointed by levy court to lay off said road if thought expedient—its width—plots to be returned—power of commissioners—discretionary power of the levy court.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Cecil county, if they or a majority of them should think that a road beginning at Roek Run in Cecil county, on the Susquehannah, to pass near the division line of Mrs. Martha Patterson and Thomas Patten's farms, from thence to run and intersect the road leading from the brick Meeting house to Port Deposit, on the Susquehannah, is necessary or beneficial to the inhabitants of said county, shall have power and authority to appoint three commissioners to view said ground, and lay off a road not exceeding thirty feet wide, on the straightest direction the ground will admit of,