

1812.
ascertained by them—how to be paid.

shua Gorsuch, of Baltimore county, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they or a majority of them, are authorised and requested to view and ascertain what damages the said Jacob Landenslager has sustained by the road running through his lot of ground, taking into view the advantages and disadvantages, (if any,) and make return of such valuation and damages to the levy court of Baltimore county, to be by them levied at their next meeting that shall happen thereafter, on the assessable property of said county, to be collected and paid, as other county charges are collected and paid, to the said Jacob Landenslager, his heirs or assigns.

CHAPTER 54.

Passed Dec. 7, 1812. A supplement to the act entitled, "An act to confirm a road in Harford and Baltimore counties, therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It has been represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of Elijah Bosley and Sarah Carroll, that a law passed at November session eighteen hundred and ten, authorising commissioners therein named, to lay out a road through the land of the petitioners, with power to assess the damages they might sustain by reason of said road being laid through their land, and the said commissioners did proceed and laid out the same, and assessed the damages they considered the petitioners entitled to, which said allowance the petitioners consider not equal to the damages they have sustained by reason of said road being laid out and opened, and pray that other commissioners may be appointed to value the damages sustained by them: Therefore,

Commissioners—they shall meet to ascertain damages—how to be paid.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Watts, Edward Goodwin, and Samuel Stone from Baltimore county, and Thomas Hope, Jesse Jarrett and William Glenn from Harford county, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they or a majority of them are hereby authorised and directed to meet on that part of the road complained of, lying in Baltimore county, on a day by them to be appointed, which day shall be on or before the first day of July next, and after being qualified before some justice of the peace, truly and impartially to estimate the damages sustained by the said Sarah Carroll and Elijah Bosely, by reason of the said road running through their land, so far as the same lies in Balti-