No. 13

(House Joint Resolution 8)

Joint Resolution urging the Department of Forests and Parks, the Department of Correction and the Department of Public Welfare to cooperate in creating and expanding a system of forestry camps for certain inmates of the penal institutions and training schools.

WHEREAS, During the course of an extended review of State budgetary policy by the Committee on Taxation and Fiscal Matters, some attention was given to the recent establishment of a forestry camp where work can be performed by inmates of training schools; and

WHEREAS, In the opinion of the Committee on Taxation and Fiscal Matters and of the members of the General Assembly, this program could wisely be considerably broadened in order to provide for deserving inmates not only of training schools but also of the several penal institutions, an opportunity for work in the open; and

WHEREAS, Such camps, perhaps modeled on those operated by the Civilian Conservation Corps during the 1930's, could be of great benefit in offering an opportunity for rehabilitation of persons who have been held either in training schools or in penal institutions, while at the same time providing a much-needed source of labor for the reforestation and development programs of the Department of Forests and Parks; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Department of Forests and Parks, the Department of Correction and the Department of Public Welfare be urged and requested to cooperate to the fullest extent in creating and expanding a system of forestry camps to be operated throughout this State, and to be staffed with inmates of the several penal institutions and training schools.
