

may have derived from the use of the Annapolis and Elkridge Railroad, in connection with the Washington Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and which said profits shall or may have been paid into the treasury, as required by the aforesaid act of eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter one hundred and sixty-eight; to the commissioners appointed in pursuance of the seventeenth section of the third article of the constitution, to revise, simplify and abridge the rules of practice, pleadings, forms of conveyancing and proceedings of the courts of record in this State, twenty thousand dollars; to the Secretary of the Senate, three hundred dollars; to the chief clerk of the House of Delegates, three hundred dollars; to the Keeper of the records of the Court of Chancery, one thousand dollars; to the payment of stationery purchased for the Legislature, or so much thereof as may be necessary, three thousand dollars; to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, as per chapter two hundred and sixty-six, of eighteen hundred and fifty-three, twenty thousand dollars; to the cost of filing and recording in the Court of Appeals as required by the constitution, the laws and resolutions which have been or may be passed at the present session, three hundred and fifty dollars; to the expense of indexing the laws, journals and public documents of the two houses of the General Assembly, four hundred and fifty dollars; to the expense of distributing the laws, journals and documents, to the Clerks of the several courts, one hundred and fifty dollars; to the payment of the per diem and mileage of the members of the Presidential electoral college, their officers and attendants, four hundred and fifty dollars; to the holder or holders of coupons or certificates of interest in arrear, which were not funded under the provisions of chapter two hundred and thirty-eight of eighteen hundred and forty-six, five thousand dollars; to the Librarian for compensation in pursuance of resolution number twelve of eighteen hundred and thirty-three, one hundred and fifty dollars; to the States subscription to two hundred copies of the Maryland Digest by Stockett, Merrick and Miller, as per resolution number — of eighteen hundred and fifty-six, two thousand dollars; to the States subscription to three hundred copies of Vingtate's Maryland Register, three hundred dollars; to the Auditor of the city of Baltimore, in pursuance of chapter — of eighteen hundred and fifty-six,