

passed the 10th day of March 1856, chapter 299, to which this act is a supplement, and the said Joshua H. Hynes, shall also be entitled to the full benefit of the said act, to which this act is a supplement, notwithstanding anything in the fourth section of the same contained, or any judgment or suit pending or existing against the said Joshua H. Hynes, and provided further that said Hynes shall pay all costs and charges on said suit or suits.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller be and he is hereby authorised to direct the State's Attorney for Baltimore county to dismiss the suit now pending in the Circuit court of said county against Samuel P. Storm, former Sheriff thereof and others in favor of the State, upon payment into the State Treasury, within sixty days after the passage of this act, the balance of the principal for which he is indebted as collector of the direct taxes, with so much interest thereon as he may have received, to be verified under oath, together with all costs and charges that have or may accrue on said suit.

Comptroller authorised to direct suit to be dismissed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect from the date of its passage.

In force

CHAPTER 273.

AN ACT to alter the district lines between the fifth, sixth and ninth election districts of Cecil County.

Passed March 5, 1858.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the line henceforth between the fifth, sixth and ninth election districts of Cecil county, be and are hereby established as follows: beginning for the bounds of the said ninth election district, at the Pennsylvania line, on the road near John Brown Joiner, thence south with said road to its intersection with the road leading from Rising Sun to Brick Meeting House, thence east with said road to the northwest Boundaries of election district.