

not interested nor holding lands through which said road may pass, and the persons so appointed, or a majority of them, after giving thirty days notice thereof in one or more of the newspapers published in said county, shall meet on the premises and re-survey, and mark and bound such public road, according to the best evidence they can obtain of the location thereof, either by the examination of witnesses or by reference to former surveys, or by personal inspection of such road, and in the absence of other sufficient and satisfactory evidence, the said examiners are hereby authorised to adopt the centre of such road as used, as the centre thereof, according to its true location, and mark and bound such road accordingly, giving it the proper width to which it may be entitled, being not less than thirty feet in any case; and they shall make and return to the County Commissioners, a plat of such road with a full report of their proceedings under their hands.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said examiners, before they proceed to act, shall take an oath or affirmation, as the case may be, to execute the trust reposed in them by the commission to them issued, faithfully and without favor, affection or partiality, which oath shall be endorsed on the commission and returned therewith.

To make oath
or affirm.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That after the expiration of ten days from and after the return of the examiners, the said County Commissioners, after hearing and considering any objections that may be made, shall proceed to pass judgment thereon, and affirm or reject the same, or order it to be amended, in their discretion, and may continue over their proceedings to their next meeting, and so from time to time, so long as the said Commissioners, shall, in their judgment, think such continuance necessary for the purpose of justice, and the final judgment of said Commissioners, in relation to such road or roads, and the plat thereof as confirmed by such judgment shall be recorded among the Land Records of said county by the Clerk of the Circuit Court, in a separate book, to be by him provided for that purpose, and for such recording, the Clerk shall be entitled

County Commissioners to proceed to pass
judgment.
