to charge and be paid by said County Commissioners according to the rate for recording such matters now authorised by law, and the re-survey of such road or roads as established and confirmed by the judgment of the said County Commissioners, or certified copies of the record thereof, shall be taken and received as full and sufficient evidence of the true location of such roads in any court of law or equity in the State.

Duty of Road Supervisors. Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the road supervisors in said county, to remove all obstructions from within the limits of the several public roads in Harford county, at the cost and expense of the person or persons who may have caused such obstructions to be placed therein, if the same shall not be removed by such person or persons after reasonable notice being given to him or them by the supervisor to remove the same.

In force. Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 275.

Passed March 2, 1858. AN ACT for the relief of Elizabeth Rutledge and her daughter, and Gist Vaughan, of Baltimore county.

Commissioners authorised to levy. Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioners of Baltimore county, be and they are hereby authorised, if they, in their judgment, think it just and proper, to levy on the assessable property of Baltimore county for the relief of Elizabeth Rutledge and daughter, not exceeding the sum of forty dollars annually, as long as they, or either of them, may require it for their support, to be placed in the hands of Aaron Freeland, for their especial benefit.

Further levy. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Baltimore county, be and they are
