

Duty of building committee.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That Josias Hawkins, George P. Jenkins and Edmund Perry, be and they are hereby constituted and appointed a building committee, whose duty it shall be to procure by purchase, or otherwise, a suitable site upon which to erect said jail, and to determine upon the plan of the same; and it shall be their further duty to issue proposals for the erection thereof, giving at least twenty days notice by advertisement in one or more papers, and at three of the most public places in said county, and the contract for building said jail shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall be required to enter into bond with good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his contract, to be approved by the said building committee.

Money to be paid over.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said sum or sums when so levied and collected, together with the several sums now in the hands of the County Commissioners of said county, shall be paid over to the building committee named in this act to superintend the erection of said jail, and shall be by them faithfully applied and expended in the erection thereof.

Sheriff to be notified.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said building committee shall upon the completion of said jail notify the sheriff of said county thereof, whose duty it shall be to remove to said jail all prisoners who may be in his custody at the time of notification, and confine them there; and the sheriff shall not be required to pay to the county any sum for rent of said jail.

Compensation of the Building Committee.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners are hereby authorised to levy upon the assessable property of said county a sum sufficient to pay the said building committee a reasonable compensation for their services, not exceeding two dollars per day.

In force.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.
