In favor of the Chaplains.

No. 53.

WHEREAS, The encouragement given to negroes running away from their owners in this state, and the harboring of them by sundry citizens of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the state of Delaware, has been productive of serious inconveniences and of great injury to the owners of slaves—Therefore,

Resolved, By the General Assembly of Maryland, That the encouragement given to, and the harboring and employing of run-away negroes from this state by sundry citizens of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania and state of Delaware, has increased to so alarming a degree, and the inconvenience arising therefrom to the good people of this state has become so great and intolerable as to make longer silence on this subject on the part of the general assembly of Maryland, if not criminal, highly improper.

Passed Feb. 23,
1822

Relative to absconding slaves.
