CHAPTER 49.

Passed Jan. 15, 1822. An act for the relief of the infant children of Levin H. Campbell, late of Dorchester county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It appears to the general assembly, that Levin H. Campbell, late of Dorchester county, purchased of a certain John M. Davis of the said county, certain tracts or parcels of land lying and being in said county, and described in a deed bearing date on the tenth day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and fifteen, and executed by the said John M. Davis, to the said Levin H. Campbell and Samuel Chamberlain, of Talbot county. And whereas, It is represented by Joseph E. Muse, uncle to the infant children of the said Levin H. Campbell, and by the said John M. Davis, that it would be beneficial to the interest of the said minor children, if the said contract should be vacated, and that the said John M. Davis has assented to vacate the said contract,

May prefer a petition.

BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Joseph E. Muse, may prefer a petition to the next county court for Dorchester county, stating the grounds upon which he deemes that the rescinding of the deed and contract would be for the benefit of the infant heirs of said Campbell, and if the court, upon hearing, shall be of opinion that it will be for the benefit of the infant heirs of said Campbell, the said court may decree that the said deed shall have no effect, and that the said John M. Davis, shall be restored and re-seized of his estate in the lands and tenements in the deed contained, according to his respective rights, in as full and ample a manner as if no deed had ever been executed, and shall order and decree all agreements, contracts and bonds, executed in relation thereto, and for securing the purchase money, to be cancelled, delivered up, and the estate of the said Levin H. Campbell therefrom discharged; Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any liens created or attached on the said lands in the life-time of the said Levin H. Campbell. And provided also, That if any part of the consideration money shall have been paid to the said Davis, that then the said purchase money shall be first refunded to the representative of the said Campbell.
