

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

MARYLAND, SC.

a Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held at the City of Annapolis, on the first Monday of December, being the 2d day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, 1822, and ending on the 24th day of February, in the year 1823, his excellency Samuel Stevens, Jr. Esq. Governor, the following laws were enacted, to wit:

CHAPTER 1.

Act for the benefit of John Swartsfelter and Jacob Christ, of Washington County.

Passed Dec. 13, 1822.

WHEREAS, John Swartsfelter and Jacob Christ have, by their several petitions, represented to this general assembly, that they severally emigrated to the state of Maryland many years ago, and since their emigration and settlement, they have acquired, or wish to purchase and acquire real property therein; and their several titles to said property, from their not being naturalized agreeable to the laws of the United States, may be called in question to their great detriment and injury; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for the said John Swartsfelter and Jacob Christ, either of them, to have, hold, possess and enjoy all real property heretofore acquired by them or either of them by purchase, or which hereafter be so acquired by them or either of them, in the same manner to all intents and purposes, as they would do, if at the time of such purchases they had been natural born citizens; Provided always; That nothing in this act contained shall in any manner defeat or affect any right, title or claim to any such property or any part thereof, acquired or prosecuted by any person or persons whatsoever, before the passage of this act; And provided also, That the said John Swartsfelter and Jacob Christ shall, within twelve months after their being capable of becoming citizens, naturalize themselves agreeable to the laws of the United States; but if the said John Swartsfelter and Jacob Christ, or either of them, should die before the period herein allowed for their being naturalized, the real property which either of them may have purchased, shall nevertheless pass to their legal representatives, in the same manner as if they had become naturalized.

CHAPTER 2.

An act to confirm an act entitled, An act to alter that part of the Constitution and form of Government relating to the division of Dorchester county into five separate election districts.

Passed Dec. 14, 1822.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an act of Assembly passed at the last session of the Legislature, entitled, An Act confirmed.
