

Dec. Ses. 1822
 necessary, a sum not exceeding thirty dollars, for the support and maintenance of William Lathrum, to be collected by the collector of said county, and paid to William Lathrum or his order.

CHAPTER 73.

Passed Jan. 24, 1823. A Supplement to the act entitled, An act to incorporate Salisbury Academy in Worcester County.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The trustees of Salisbury Academy in Worcester county, and sundry other inhabitants of Somerset and Worcester counties, have represented to this general assembly, that enlarging the number of trustees of the said academy would foster the interests of said academy, and have prayed that a law may pass for that purpose; Therefore,

Trustees.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the number of trustees of the said academy, be, and the same is hereby extended to fifteen, and that Handy H. Irving, David Howaid, Sampson Davis, Charles Rider, William B. Bell, Jehu Parsons, George Todd, and George Maddox, be, and they are hereby constituted additional trustees of the said academy.

Body corporate.

2. And be it enacted, That the trustees of the said academy constituted by the act to which this is a supplement, and the trustees constituted by this act, be, and the same are hereby declared to be the trustees of the said academy, a body politic and corporate and invested with all the rights, privileges and immunities granted by the act to which this is a supplement.

CHAPTER 74.

Passed Jan. 27, 1823. An act for the benefit of Buckler Bond and others, of Harford county.

Commissioners.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James Steel, William Smithson, and John Hopkins, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to view the road as located from Belle-Air, in Harford county to the Baltimore county line, in a direction towards Baltimore city, under a law of last session and ascertain what damages if any the landholders have sustained by reason of the said road having been laid through or over their lands taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages in each of their individual cases, and assess such damages to each landholder as they in their judgment may think him or her entitled to, if any, and a return thereof make to the levy court of Harford county, who are hereby authorised and directed to levy the same on the assessable property of said county, and have the money collected and paidover to the persons entitled thereto.

Compensation.

2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners appointed by this act shall be entitled to two dollars a day each, for their attendance in performing the duties hereby imposed on them.

CHAPTER 75.

Passed Jan. 24, 1823. An act for the revaluation of the real and personal property, in Somerset county.

Revaluc. Commissioners meet.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the tax for Somerset county, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to meet at Princess Anne, as soon as may be practicable after the passage of this act, and then proceed to revalue and reassess the real and personal property within the said county, agreeable to the provisions of an act passed at No-