

persons agreeably to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, to carry into effect the object of the aforesaid act in the manner therein provided. Dec. Ses. 1823

2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners appointed by virtue of this act shall be allowed each, for every day in which they shall be actually engaged in making the survey therein directed, the sum of two dollars, and that the said commissioners shall determine on the compensation to be allowed to the surveyor, chain carriers, and other assistants by them to be employed. Compensation.

CHAPTER 61.

An act relating to the recovery of fines under the bye-laws of the Corporation of the City of Annapolis. Passed Jan. 16, 1824.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever any person or persons have violated or shall violate any bye-law of the mayor, recorder, alderman and common council of the city of Annapolis, imposing a fine or other penalty, the mayor or recorder, some one of the aldermen, or a justice of the peace, may on information on oath, or on his own view, issue his warrant returnable forthwith, or within ten days, directed to one of the constables of said city, to apprehend the said person or persons, and the said person or persons upon being brought before the said mayor or recorder, one of the aldermen or some justice of the peace, may upon a full hearing of the case be sentenced to pay such fine as may be imposed by such bye-law; or such case may be continued for further hearing of the parties as may seem reasonable to the said mayor, recorder, alderman or justice of the peace before whom the offender or offenders may be brought. Proceedings authorised.

2. And be it enacted, That if such bye-law shall give a part of the fine or penalty to the informer, or if such fine or penalty be discretionary the judgment or sentence of the said mayor, recorder, alderman or justice of the peace, shall specify how much of said fine or penalty shall be to the use of the said mayor, recorder, alderman and common council, and how much to the said informer or informers. Disposition of fines.

3. And be it enacted, That the mayor, recorder, alderman or justice of the peace who may pass judgment under such bye-law, may issue a fieri facias or capias ad satisfaciendum, and if necessary a mittimus for the enforcement of the same. Authority granted.

CHAPTER 62.

An act to authorise the Levy Courts of the several counties of this state to pay the funeral expenses of Paupers out of the Poor House of said county. Passed Dec. 18, 1823.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the levy courts of the several counties of this state, to levy and assess on the assessable property of said counties, except Baltimore county, such sum or sums of money as shall be adequate to liquidate such accounts as they shall find necessary for the payment of all the accounts allowed by them for the funeral expenses of paupers, out of the poor house of said county. Levy.

CHAPTER 63.

An act to alter and change the place of holding the elections in the first election district in Cecil county. Passed Jan. 16, 1824.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of the first election district in Cecil county, be, and they are Judges authorised.