Dec. Ses. 1824

CHAPTER 10.

A supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the establishment and regulation of the Levy Courts of the several Counties in this State.

Passed Jan 7, 1825.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in case of the death, refusal to act, removal out of his hundred, resignation or disqualification of any constable, it shall and may be lawful for the justices of the levy court of the county, in which such vacancy shall occur, or a majority of them at their next meeting, to appoint a proper person to supply such vacancy, in the same manner that they are now authorized to appoint constables at their meeting to lay the county assessments.

Levy court appoint constables.

2. And be it enacted, That in all cases in which two magistrates shall hereafter in the recess of the levy court, appoint a constable in the place of a constable who shall have died, resigned, removed or refused to act as aforesaid, such magistrates shall cause notice thereof to be given to the clerk of the county court of the county, in which the appointment shall have been made, who shall thereupon be authorized to take the bond of the said constable, with such securities as the said clerk shall approve in the same manner, with the same penalty, and with the same condition as are now prescribed for constables bonds to be taken by the justices of the levy court; and the said constable so to be appointed, shall not be authorized to act until the said clerk shall endorse the said bond to be approved by him.

Bonds when magistrates appoint.

3. And be it enacted, That the said constable so to be appointed and qualified, shall be authorised to do and perform all the duties of a constable, until the levy court of the said county, shall at their next special or adjourned meeting, appoint some other person as constable for said hundred.

To serve till meeting of levy court.

CHAPTER 11.

A supplement to an act entitled, An act to amend and reduce into one the several acts of assembly relating to the public roads in Worcester county, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty one.

Passed Jan 7, 1825.

WHEREAS doubts have been suggested, whether under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, an appeal lies to the county court in a case where a petition for a public road has been presented to the levy court and rejected by the levy court, Therefore,

Preamble,

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in any case where the levy court of Worcester county hath rejected or shall hereafter reject an application for a public road under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, the county court of said county shall be, and is hereby authorized to receive and act upon any appeal in any such case of rejection, Provided said appeal hath been or shall be prayed within sixty days after such rejection, and the original petition shall be filed with the clerk of the county court on or before the second day of the term of said court next after such rejection.

Re-hearing of petition for road.
