 1868 Ch. 80. Boundaries of election districts.

“Costen’s or Election District number one: commencing at the Pocomoke River at the mouth of Carey’s Creek, thence running by and with said creek to Mason’s Mills, thence by and with the County Road from Mason’s Mills, to a place known by the name of the “Sheep House,” and thence in a direct course by survey to the line of the State of Virginia; all of the territory west of said boundary line is included in the boundaries of the said Election District number one. For Snow Hill, Election District number two, the boundaries shall be the same as are now established by law, and shall continue to be the limits of said District. For Berlin, Election District number three, the same boundaries as are now established by law shall continue to be the limits of said District number three. For New Ark, Election District number four, the same boundaries as are now established by law shall continue to be the limits of said district number four. For St. Martin’s, Election District number five, the same boundaries as are now established by law shall continue to be the limits of said District number five. For Coulbourn’s, Election District number six, the same boundaries heretofore established by law, in so far as they do not conflict with the Election Districts of Wicomico County, or the territory of said County, shall be the limits of said District number six, except as such other additional territory as by this act may be included therein. For Adkinson’s, Election District number seven, the same boundaries as are now established by law, in so far as they do not conflict with the Election District of Wicomico County, or the territory of said county, shall be the limits of said District number seven, except as such other additional territory as by this Act may be included therein. For Sandy Hill, Election District number eight, the following shall be the boundaries of said District, namely; all that
