

"That all that part of Dorchester county, to wit: beginning at a point on Main street, in the town of Federalsburg, where Bridge street terminates, and which is an intersection of a boundary between Dorchester county and Caroline county (marked "A" on the plat prepared by John B. Isler, a surveyor of Caroline county, dated January twenty-second, A. D., eighteen hundred and eighty), and thence running with said Main street, which is the present division line of said counties, the following courses, viz: north eight degrees west, thirty-one perches; north thirty degrees west, thirty-nine perches; north forty-six degrees west, thirty-two perches; north forty-six degrees west, thirty-two perches; thence, still with the county road and present boundary line between the said counties, north sixty-one degrees west, twelve perches; north eighty-two degrees west, seventy-six perches and twelve links; north eighty-four and one half degrees west, nineteen perches and twelve links; south fifty-nine degrees west, twenty-two perches and fourteen links; south fifty-four degrees west, fifteen perches and six links; south sixty-seven degrees west, eight perches and nineteen links; south seventy-seven and one half degrees west, thirty-eight perches and nineteen links; south seventy-seven degrees west, twenty-three perches and one link; south eighty degrees west, fourteen perches; north eighty-nine degrees west, twenty-seven perches and ten links; north seventy-seven and one half degrees west, eighteen perches and ten links; north eighty-five and one half degrees west, eighty-one perches and eight links; north seventy-seven degrees west, seventeen perches and seven links; north eighty-one degrees west, twenty-one perches; north sixty-five and one half degrees west, six perches and ten links, to a point in the said county road where a division line between the lands of Wm. A. Allberger and Mrs. Ann Noble terminates; thence, with the same reversed and through the lands of Robert McCrea, A. W. Flowers, John Dickerson, and Mrs. Rose Morris, south four degrees west, four hundred and forty perches, to a county road leading in an easterly direction towards the said town of Federalsburg; thence with the same and bounded thereby, north eighty-nine degrees east, two hundred and twenty perches; south seventy-six and one half degrees east one hundred and twenty perches to the county road from Williamsburg to Federalsburg; thence with the same and bounded thereby, north seventy-five degrees east, twenty perches; south seventy-eight and one half degrees east, twenty-five perches; thence through the lands of Charles Pinyard, south seventy-eight and one half degrees east, forty-three perches, to the northwest fork of the Nanticoke river; thence with the same and its marshes and passing through the land of Charles Pinyard, R. McGee and Charles W. Jefferson; north ten degrees west, thirty-five perches; north five and one half degrees east, forty perches; north three and one half degrees west, eighteen perches; north forty-three degrees east, fourteen perches; north forty-two degrees east, twelve perches; north forty-seven degrees east, nine perches and twelve links; north fifty-six degrees east, ten perches; north thirty-six degrees east, twelve perches; north twenty-eight degrees east, twenty perches; north forty-one degrees east, forty perches, to a point opposite to where Miles Run empties into the northwest fork of the Nanticoke river; thence crossing the said northwest fork south sixty-eight degrees east, ten perches, to a point at or near the mouth of Miles Run; thence with said Miles Run and its meander-