

said Big Black Water river to the road leading to the Baptist Meeting House, thence with said road to the county road leading to Taylor's Island, thence with said county road to the head of Broad Cove, thence with said cove to the river, thence following the Fishing Creek branch until it comes opposite Hurley's new road, or place of beginning."

- 1852 Ch. 174. Erects additional election district out of 5th election district to be known as Strait's Neck district or district number ten, bounded as follows:

"Beginning at the head of Fox Creek, at or near Stapleford's wind mill, thence running to the county road to Holme's front gate, thence running with said road to the Black Water road, thence running and binding with said Black Water road to Fearim Creek bridge and from thence running down said Fearim creek to Fishing bay, thence running so as to include all the islands in and near the mouth of the Nanticoke river, belonging to Dorchester county, and in the fifth election district, to the line dividing Dorchester and Somerset counties, thence with said line down said river and Fishing bay, the Tangier sound and Holland straits, to the Chesapeake bay, thence with said bay, Hooper's Straits, Honga river, and Fox creek to the place of beginning. The place of holding elections to be at Todd town."

- 1854 Ch. 256. Erects an additional election district with the following bounds:

"Beginning at the bridge over Transquaking river, a little below Higgins' mills, thence running with the country road by Middletown, or Manning's road, to the drawbridge over Chicamacomico river, at Manning's store, then with and up said river until it comes to a point or place on said river opposite to the road running to Nanticoke river, known as the Hard or Craft's road, then with a straight line to said Hard road, then running with said Hard or Craft's road to the Nanticoke river to the public landing, a little south of Vicker's wharf, then down the said river so as to include all the islands belonging in the third election district, then to the mouth of Transquaking river, then up the said river to the place of beginning."

- 1858 Ch. 198. Changes polling place of 6th election district from Fishing creek ferry to the store of Robert H. Creighton.

- 1858 Ch. 235. Erects 12th election district out of No. 2 as follows:

"Beginning at the bridge over the Nanticoke river, at Federalsburg, thence with the county road that separates Dorchester from Caroline county, to Hunting Creek, thence with said Creek to Choptank river, thence with said river to Blink Horn Creek, thence with said creek to its head,