

- 1876 Ch. 51. Changes the dividing line between the 3d and 5th election district to run as follows:
"Beginning at the Morgantown road where said road intersects the National Road, then running a south-east course to a point on the road known as the Samuel Engle Mill road, where said road crosses the top of Negro Mountain, and intersecting the present dividing line between election districts three and five, thence with the present dividing line as located."
- 1880 Ch. 309. Changes portion of line between 3d and 5th election districts to run as follows:
"Beginning at the top of Negro Mountain where the road known as the Samuel Engle Mill road crosses said mountain, and running thence with the said road to the Westerman bridge, over the Cashman river, thence with the said river to the point where it intersects the dividing line between districts number three and number one."
- 1882 Ch. 89. Changes a portion of the line between the 5th and 6th election districts to run as follows:
"Beginning at the head of the north fork of Casselmans river, in a straight line, to Lynns Sugar Camp, and from thence to the top of Negro mountain, intersecting the Grantsville and Oakland road, and from thence to present district line, near the west place."
- 1882 Ch. 143. Erects two new election districts, Nos. 10 and 11, out of the 1st, 7th, and 8th election districts and changes the line between the 3d and 4th. The bounds are as follows:
"Beginning at the burnt school house on Hoopole Ridge, in district number seven, and running with Broad Foard Run as it now does to its mouth, intersecting with the Ryans Glade road, thence with said Ryans Glade road to the M. E. Church in Ryans Glade, in district number eight, from thence along the Altamont road to John Davis' saw mill, on a stream known as Laurel Run, and with said run to the North Branch of the Potomac River, thence with said North Branch to Kitzmillersville, and from thence with what is known as Hamill's line to the beginning . . . shall be known and designated as district number ten."
"That the present dividing line between the third and fourth election districts of Garrett county be changed so as to run as follows: Beginning at the foot of Savage Mountain where the two county roads intersect, and running down said mountain to the head waters of Mill Run, then with said run to the dividing line between Allegany and Garrett counties, thence with said dividing line to district number nine, thence with said line to or near John Wilhelm's at Little Savage, thence changing the dividing
