

SAMUEL SPRIGG, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

1819.

CHAP. CXXV.

CHAP. 125.

An Act to prevent Bullet Playing in Union-Town, in Frederick County.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if any person or persons, after the first day of April next, shall be found playing at bullets in the public streets of Union-town, in Frederick county, each and every person or persons so playing, shall be liable to be presented or indicted therefor in the county court of Frederick county, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined, in the discretion of the court, a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, and pay the costs of prosecution.

Passed Feb 7, 1820
Penalty for playing in streets

CHAP. CXXVI.

An Act relating to the Surgical Institution of Baltimore.

Passed Feb 7 1820
Preamble

WHEREAS, in pursuance of and under the authority of an act of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at December session eighteen hundred and fifteen, entitled, An act authorising the drawing of a lottery for the benefit of the surgical institution of Baltimore, the commissioners therein named proceeded to draw a lottery, by which they raised the nett sum of twelve thousand five hundred dollars; and afterwards, in pursuance of the authority vested in them by the aforesaid act, purchased from the Bank of Baltimore, and the Bank of Maryland, for the sum of twenty-three thousand dollars, a lot of ground near the city of Baltimore, for the purposes expressed in the said act; and the said commissioners having paid to the said banks the sum of ten thousand dollars, part of the aforesaid purchase money, and John Owen and William Gibson, junior, two of the aforesaid commissioners, having bound themselves in their individual capacity to the said banks for the payment of the sum of thirteen thousand dollars, the balance of the aforesaid purchase money, with interest thereon from the first day of April eighteen hundred and seventeen, a bond of conveyance was thereupon, viz. on the thirty-first day of May eighteen hundred and seventeen, executed by the president and directors of the aforesaid banks, under their respective corporate seals, to the said John Owen and William Gibson, junior, for and on behalf of the aforesaid commissioners, conditioned for the conveyance, by the said banks to the said commissioners, of the aforesaid lot of ground, on payment of the purchase money, in trust, in the first place, to secure and indemnify the said John Owen and William Gibson, junior, their heirs, executors or administrators, in becoming answerable for the said sum of thirteen thousand dollars, with interest as aforesaid, and afterwards in trust for such uses and purposes as are limited and appointed by the aforesaid recited act: And whereas, the said commissioners have actually expended upon the buildings, and other improvements of said lot, the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, being the balance of the nett sum of twelve thousand five hundred dollars raised as aforesaid by the aforesaid first drawn lottery, and the further sum of about fifteen hundred dollars out of the nett proceeds of the second drawn lottery herein after mentioned: And whereas, by reason of the operation of a subsequent act of assembly, passed at December session eighteen hundred and seventeen, entitled, An act to regulate lotteries, (which said act imposes a tax on lotteries generally, and in particular upon a second lottery drawn under its authority for the purposes expressed in the act of eighteen hundred and fifteen, the whole of the nett