

at any time during the months of February or March upon application therefor by payment of the renewal fee. Failure on the part of any person certified to pay his renewal fee before April 1st does not deprive him of his right to renew his certification, but the fee to be paid for renewal after March shall be increased ten per cent (10%) for each month or fraction thereof that the payment of the renewal fee is delayed. However, the maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed twice the normal renewal fee. A psychologist who wishes to place his certification upon an inactive status may do so upon application by payment of a fee of Three Dollars ($3.00); such a psychologist shall not accrue any penalty for late payment of the renewal fee.

594. Roster of Certified Psychologists. During the month of June of each year, the Board shall publish a list of all psychologists certified under this sub-title. The list shall contain the name and address of the psychologist and such other information that the Board deems desirable. Both alphabetical and geographical lists shall be prepared. The Board shall mail a copy of this list to each person certified under this sub-title, shall place a copy on file with the Secretary of State and shall furnish copies to the public upon request.

595. Revocation or Suspension of Certifications—Reprimand.

(a) The certification of any psychologist may be suspended or revoked by the Board upon proof that the psychologist (1) has been convicted of a felony by any court; the conviction of a felony shall be the conviction of any offense which if committed within this State would constitute a felony under the laws of this State; or (2) is or has been an habitual drunkard or addicted to the use of morphine, opium, cocaine, or other drugs having similar effect.

(b) The certification of any psychologist may be suspended or revoked by the Board, upon proof that he (1) has been guilty of fraud or deceit in connection with his services rendered as a psychologist, or (2) has aided or abetted a person, not a certified psychologist, in representing himself as a psychologist within this State; or (3) has been guilty of unprofessional conduct as defined by the rules established by the Board.

(c) No certification shall be suspended or revoked until after hearing before the Board is had upon notice to the psychologist of at least ten days. The notice shall be served either personally or by registered mail and shall state the time and place of the hearing and shall set forth the ground or grounds constituting the charges against the psychologist. The psychologist is entitled to be heard in his defense either in person or with counsel and may produce testimony and may testify in his own behalf. A record of the hearing shall be taken and preserved. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time. If the psychologist fails or refuses to appear, the Board may proceed to hear and determine the charges in his absence. If the psychologist pleads guilty or if upon hearing the charges a majority of the Board find them to be true, the Board may enter an order suspending or revoking the certification or reprimanding the psychologist, as the case may be. The Board shall reduce its findings and order to writing.

(d) The Board through its Chairman or Vice-Chairman may administer oaths and may compel the attendance of witnesses and
