

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 172 of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Susquehanna Flats", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

172. (License for Sneak Boat.) (a) Every applicant before obtaining such license shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court to whom he may apply for the same the following rates, namely: for a sneak boat, Five Dollars ($5.00), for each and every gunning season as defined herein, and in addition to the moneys received from licenses aforesaid the Clerk of the Court shall collect and retain in lieu of all other compensation the sum of Fifty Cents (50¢) for issuing each license. Said license shall not be transferable and if used on any sneak boat other than the one for which it was issued said license shall be confiscated and the person to whom it was issued prosecuted for violation of this sub-heading. Said license shall only be valid during the legal open season for hunting wild water fowl, and it shall be the duty of every person obtaining a license to exhibit the same whenever called upon by any officer of this State or any other person who shall demand to see the same.

Each and every applicant for such license shall make oath before the Clerk of the Court authorized to issue the same that he is a bona fide resident of this State and that he will not employ on a gunning rig any person except a bona fide resident of this State and that he will comply with all the provisions of the law regulating the hunting of wild water fowl in the territory designated as the Flats, and every person to whom such license may be granted shall be required to paint the name or number of the sneak boat on some prominent part thereof in large legible letters or numbers, as the case may be, to correspond with said name or number of license issued to him.

(b) (License for Body Booters.) All body booting rigs must possess a bushwhacking or sneak boat license and a bushwhacking or sneak boat rig. It will be unlawful for a non-resident to shoot from a body booting rig on the Susquehanna Flats unless the legal holder or resident co-owner of the license accompanies the rig. In case of resident co-ownership of rig, the license can be issued in two names.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1957.

Approved March 1, 1957.
