

WHEREAS, it might well be that this informal group could become and be used by the Commissioner as an effective instrument for continuously channeling to his office the problems and ideas of the present personnel officers; and

WHEREAS, it is possible also that in other State offices which do not now have someone personally responsible for personnel problems an individual might be so designated; and

WHEREAS, this interchange of ideas could take place without the addition of new positions, since the main need is simply one of formalizing the operation of existing personnel and machinery; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioner of Personnel be requested to establish more definite and formal procedures covering the flow of information concerning the personnel problems in the offices of the several departments and agencies of the State Government, with the purpose of assuring to the Commissioner of Personnel a constant awareness of these departmental matters and a continuing effort to solve personnel problems common throughout the State service.

Approved January 28, 1957.

No. 3

(Senate Joint Resolution 5)

Joint Resolution recommending that the State Department of Education strengthen its central recruiting effort for new teachers.

WHEREAS, the Committee on Taxation and Fiscal Matters, in its study of teachers' salary questions, was impressed with the need for strengthening and expanding the recruiting effort on the part of the State of Maryland to assure a constant supply of new teachers for the expanding school population; and

WHEREAS, the Committee noted that other States have extended their own recruiting efforts into teacher training institutions in Maryland, thus making it doubly necessary that this State act with vigor in an attempt to hold its own students for the teaching profession; and

WHEREAS, It was the belief of the Committee on Taxation and Fiscal Matters that the State Department of Education should provide leadership and coordination in this recruiting field; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the State Department of Education be requested to strengthen and expand, in
