

the proceeding before it, together with a copy of its opinion which shall include a statement of the facts found and the grounds for its decision. Any party to the proceeding in the circuit court aggrieved by the decision of said court may appeal from such decision to the Court of Appeals. [within 30 days from the date thereof.] The review proceedings provided by this sub-section shall be exclusive.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 1 of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title "Courts", sub-title "General Provisions"; Section 13 of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title "Courts", sub-title "Appointment of Surveyor"; Section 16 of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title "Courts", sub-title "Judgments"; and Section 64 of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title "Courts", sub-title "Juvenile Causes", be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

1. The judges of the several courts of law and of equity may make such rules and orders from time to time for the well-governing and regulating their respective courts and the officers and suitors thereof and under such fines and forfeitures as they shall think fit, [not exceeding Twenty Dollars for any one offense,] all of which fines shall go to the State.

13. In any case where, pursuant to statute, rule of court, decree, or otherwise, except pursuant to Rule 818 (b) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure approved and adopted by the Court of Appeals of Maryland to take effect on January 1, 1957, a bond has heretofore been or shall hereafter be filed in any Court in this State, the Court (or any Judge presiding in said Court) may, in its discretion, reduce the penalty of such bond whenever it deems such reduction justified by all the circumstances of the case.

16. Upon all agreed statements of facts [all special cases stated, and all special verdicts,] the court shall be at liberty to draw all inferences of facts or law that a court or jury could have drawn from the facts so agreed [or stated] as if the same had been offered in evidence upon a trial before the court or before the court and a jury.

64. Any interested party aggrieved by any order or decree of the Judge, may [within thirty days after the entry of such order or decree,] appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeals. Such appeal, the character and extent of the hearing and all procedure in connection therewith shall be in such form and manner as the Court of Appeals shall, by rule, determine.

The pendency of any such appeal or application therefor with respect to a child shall not suspend the order of the Judge regarding such child, nor shall it discharge such child from the custody of the person, institution or agency to whose care such child shall have been committed by the Judge, under Section 60, unless the Court of Appeals shall so order.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new Section 4A be and it is hereby added to
