

issue or in revoking or suspending such permit, may, within 10 days after receipt of notice of such failure or action, take an appeal therefrom to any court having equity jurisdiction in the county in which the property identified by the application or permit is located, or to a court having such jurisdiction in the City of Baltimore if said property is located in said City; and a copy of such appeal shall be filed with such health authority. Within 5 days after the receipt of such copy, the health authority shall transmit to such court all the original papers pertaining to such application, suspension or revocation, and such appeal shall thereafter be heard by such court as promptly as circumstances will reasonably permit. Such hearing may be had upon the record so transmitted, but the court may hear such additional evidence as it may deem proper, and upon the conclusion of such hearing the court may affirm, vacate or modify the order appealed from. The taking or pending of such an appeal shall not suspend the operation or effect of any order of suspension or revocation issued by the health authority, but the court to which such appeal is taken, upon proper cause shown, may suspend the operation of such order, and may attach to such suspension such conditions as to the court may seem proper. Either party to said proceeding may appeal from the decision of such court to the Court of Appeals of Maryland [ ], the procedure therein to be the same as in appeals from the action of equity courts in cases originating before the Public Service Commission].

554. All permits which may be issued under Section 543 of this sub-title, and all licenses which may be issued under Section 548 of this sub-title, shall be ~~revocable~~ REVOCABLE or may be suspended by the University of Maryland for cause. Any applicant for a permit or license, or any permit-holder or license-holder who shall feel aggrieved by the action of said University in failing to issue or in revoking or suspending such permit or license, may, within ten (10) days after receipt of notice of such action or failure to act, take an appeal therefrom. All such appeals shall be taken to a court having equity jurisdiction in the county or in the City of Baltimore where the applicant, or licensee or permit-holder resides or has his principal place of business, and a copy of such appeal shall be filed with said University. Within five (5) days after the receipt of such copy, the said University shall transmit to such court all the original papers pertaining to such application, revocation or suspension, and such appeal shall thereafter be heard by such court as promptly as circumstances will reasonably permit. Such hearing may be had upon the record so transmitted, but the court may hear such additional evidence as to it may seem proper, and upon the conclusion of such hearing the court may affirm, vacate or modify the order appealed from. The taking or pending of such an appeal shall not suspend the operation or effect of any order issued by said University, but the Court to which such appeal is taken, upon proper cause shown, may suspend the operation of such order, and may attach to such suspension such conditions as to the court may seem proper. Either party to said proceeding may appeal from the decision of such court to the Court of Appeals of Maryland [ ], the procedure therein to be the same as in appeals from the action of equity courts in cases originating before the Public Service Commission].
