

(2) To the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person who at the time of his death was a licensed life insurance agent;

(3) To a surviving next of kin of such deceased person, if no administrator or executor has been appointed and qualified, but any license issued under this sub-section shall be revoked upon issuance of a license to an executor or administrator under paragraph (2) above.

(4) To an applicant who has fulfilled the provisions of sub-section (d) of this section, where such applicant will actually collect the premiums on or solicit applications for industrial life insurance during the period of such temporary license (if an examination is required of such person under the provisions of sub-section (e) of this section); and such temporary license will grant the applicant, during the period that such temporary license is in force, the right to collect premiums and solicit applications for industrial life insurance, ordinary life insurance and accident and health insurance; provided, however, that if notice that such temporary license or notice of refusal thereof is not received from the Commissioner within ten days from the date the application was sent to the Commissioner, the company may assume that the temporary license will be issued in due course and the applicant may act as if such temporary license had been issued until notice to the contrary is received from the Commissioner.

(5) The license issued under this sub-section shall be effective for ninety (90) days. The Commissioner, in his discretion, may renew any license granted under this sub-section once upon proper application and for good cause.

(k) Company to Notify Commissioner of Termination of Contract; Communications Privileged.

(1) Every insurer shall, upon termination of the appointment of any life insurance agent, immediately file with the Insurance Commissioner a statement of the facts relative to the termination of the appointment and the date and cause thereof. The Commissioner shall thereupon terminate the license of such agent to represent such insurer in this State.

(2) Any information, document, record or statement required to be made or disclosed to the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to this section shall be deemed a privileged communication and shall not be used as evidence in any court action or proceeding other than a proceeding by way of appeal from the action of the Insurance Commissioner provided for under sub-section (m) hereof.

(1) A license may be refused, or a license duly issued may be suspended or revoked or the renewal thereof refused by the Insurance Commissioner if, after notice and hearing as hereafter provided, he finds that the applicant for, or holder of such license:

(i) Has wilfully violated any provision of the insurance laws of this State; or

(ii) Has intentionally made a material misstatement in the application for such license; or
