No. 4

(House Joint Resolution 2)

Resolution requesting the Legislative Council to make a study of the laws and regulations governing the seafood industry of Maryland and also of the effectiveness of research policies of the State, and make such recommendations to the General Assembly of 1961 as it may deem advisable in the best interests of the seafood industry.

WHEREAS, Many questions have been raised as to the wisdom and effectiveness of laws governing the seafood industries; and,

WHEREAS, The various laws governing the seafood industry should be studied at length, and decisions made as to what should be included in the law and be further provided for in rules and regulations; and,

WHEREAS, It seems unwise to present to the Legislature in the short session suggestions for the many changes in laws that might appear to be reasonable and necessary; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Legislative Council make a special study, either itself or through appointment of a special committee of the Legislature to report back to it, of the laws governing the seafood industry with special reference to the effectiveness of such laws in plans for rehabilitation of the industry, and to determine what, if any, changes should be made; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislative Council make a study of the State's facilities for research relating to the seafood industry to determine
