CHAPTER 401

(Senate Bill 392)

AN ACT to repeal the Charter of Washington College and all amendments thereto as the same was enacted or amended by Chapters 8 of 1782, 121 of 1922 and 44 of 1953, and to enact a new Charter in lieu thereof, to stand in the place and stead of the Charter so repealed, to establish the Charter of Washington College, to provide for the governing body of the college and to provide for the administration, control and operation of the college, and relating generally to Washington College.

WHEREAS, Institutions for the liberal education of youth in the principles of virtue, knowledge, and useful literature, are of the highest benefit to society, in order to raise up and perpetuate a succession of able and honest men and women, for discharging the various offices and duties of the community, both civil and religious, with usefulness and reputation, and such institutions of learning have accordingly merited and received the attention and encouragement of the wisest and best regulated states; and

WHEREAS, The visitors of Kent County School in the town of Chester represented to the General Assembly of the year 1782, that if they were made capable in law of erecting the said school into a college or general seminary of learning for the eastern shore, or peninsula between the bays of Chesapeake and Delaware (maintaining the original design of said school as a foundation not to be violated), very considerable sums could be raised in a few years, within the said peninsula, by free and voluntary contributions, for the establishment and support of such seminary, and prayed that a law be passed to enable them, the said visitors, to enlarge and improve the said school into a college, or place of universal learning; and

WHEREAS, It was then enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that the then visitors of Kent County School, and their successors, should have full power and authority to erect the said school into a college or seminary of universal learning, to bear the name of THE VISITORS AND GOVERNORS OF WASHINGTON COLLEGE IN THE STATE OF MARYLAND, in honorable and per-
