

($10.00) shall be required for each group of three trials. Any licensed agent, solicitor, broker or brokers' solicitor, who had a license issued by the State of Maryland as insurance agent, solicitor, broker or brokers' solicitor in force on September 1, 1960; or any person who, at the time he was inducted or enlisted in the Armed Services of the United States held a license then in force as agent, solicitor, broker or brokers' solicitor; or an applicant for the same kind of license as that which he has previously held in this State for at least one year within the three years next preceding the date of application and who is deemed by the Commissioner to be fully qualified and competent, shall not be required to submit to an examination for a license to sell the same kind of insurance for which he then had a license covering the same kind of insurance, except in cases where the license has been suspended or revoked.

(c) After passing the required examination, the Commissioner shall, upon such application, issue a limited certificate of authority or license to any person to act as Agent, Solicitor, Broker or Brokers' Solicitor, to engage in the business of selling motor vehicle insurance coverages only, including Bodily Injury Liability, Property Damage Liability, and Automobile Physical Damage, or for any other line of insurance, or subdivision thereof only where applicable.

(d) The Commissioner may issue an agent's, solicitor's, broker's or broker's solicitor's license without requiring an applicant to take and successfully complete a program of studies established or approved by regulation of the Commissioner or pass a written examination in the following circumstances: (1) to the surviving spouse or next of kin or to the administrator or executor of a deceased licensed agent, solicitor, broker or broker's solicitor or to a spouse, next of kin, employee or legal guardian of a licensed agent, solicitor, broker or broker's solicitor becoming disabled because of sickness, insanity or injury, if, in the Commissioner's opinion such temporary license is necessary for the continuation of the business of the agent, solicitor, broker or broker's solicitor thereby affected. Such license may be issued for a term not exceeding ninety days and the Commissioner may, in his discretion, renew such license for an additional term or terms of ninety days each, not exceeding in the aggregate fifteen months, and (2) to the designee of a licensed agent, solicitor, broker or broker's solicitor, who shall enter upon active service in the Armed Forces of the United States, for such period of time, as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, may be necessary for the continuation of the business of the agent, solicitor, broker or broker's solicitor thereby affected.

(e) The Commissioner may issue a temporary agent's license without requiring an applicant to take and successfully complete a program of studies established or approved by ~~regulation~~ of the Commissioner or pass a written examination in the following circumstance: To any person for the same ~~kind of license as that~~ KIND OR KINDS OF INSURANCE, OR SUB-DIVISIONS THEREOF, AS THAT FOR which he has previously ~~held~~ BEEN LICENSED in another state within the three years next preceding the date of application. Such temporary license may be issued for term not exceeding ninety (90) days and may not be renewed.

(f) The Commissioner shall within ninety (90) days from June 1, 1959, appoint an Advisory Board to make recommendations to