

there is an increase in representation, a special primary election, but only for such increased representation in the House of Delegates, shall be conducted on Tuesday, July 17, 1962. Certificates of candidacy for this primary election shall be filed not later than midnight on Monday, June 11, 1962. The final time to withdraw as a candidate is midnight on Friday, June 15, 1962. This election is declared to be a 'primary election' with respect to provisions in Article 33 of this Code, title 'Elections' which concerns the registration of voters.

(ii) Except as in this section otherwise specifically provided, the provisions of said Article 33 concerning the registration of voters and the conduct of primary elections in this State and in the respective political sub-divisions of this State apply within the particular political sub-divisions in which the special primary elections are held.

(iii) The Board of Supervisors of Elections in each such political sub-division, and all other officials and employees of this State and of the respective political sub-divisions, shall do those things which are necessary and proper to arrange for and conduct these special primary elections.

(iv) There is appropriated to the Board of Public Works, as an emergency appropriation from the General Fund Surplus of the State Treasury for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). This appropriation shall be used in whole or in part by the Board of Public Works for the payment of one-half of the cost of the special election in each of the several counties and legislative districts in which under the provisions of this section certain additional candidates are to be nominated for membership in the House of Delegates. If any portion of this appropriation is not expended on September 30, 1962, it shall revert to the general funds of the State Treasury."
