INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION

Senate Resolution No. 10—By Senator Pine:

Senate Resolution commending the Honorable George W. Della for his services to the people of Maryland.

It is with extreme regret that we note that this special session will be the last Senate meeting to be presided over by the Honorable George W. Della.

The President of the Senate has served in this body for twenty-three years. He was appointed to fill a vacancy from the Sixth District of Baltimore City in 1939. Since then he has been elected to five consecutive terms of office from Baltimore City.

He has served on two occasions as President of this body from 1951-1955, and again since 1959. His record is distinguished and unparalleled. His contributions have been many to the efficient functioning of government in Maryland; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate of Maryland, That we commend the President of the Senate, the Honorable George W. Della, for his service to the people of the State of Maryland upon his retirement from this body; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate send a copy of this Resolution to Senator and Mrs. George W. Della.

Which was read and adopted.
