

C H A P. XLVIII.

An ACT to appoint a trustee in the place of John Cradock, of Baltimore county, who is dead. Passed January 20.

WHEREAS William Lamar, by his petition to the general assembly, Preamble.
has set forth, that William Wilkinson and John Cradock, of Baltimore county, were empowered by an act that passed in November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-one, to sell part of a tract of land called Whiskey Ridge, now called Addition to Whiskey Ridge, the property of John Worthington, deceased, for the purpose of dividing the same between the representatives of the said John Worthington, and that the said William Wilkinson died before any sale was made; and that an act of assembly passed in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-three, appointing Samuel Owings as trustee in the place of said William Wilkinson, deceased, vesting in said Samuel Owings as full and ample power and authority to execute the trust committed to the said William Wilkinson and John Cradock by the said act, as was committed to the said Samuel Owings, in conjunction with said John Cradock, and that all acts done by the said Samuel Owings, in conjunction with the said John Cradock, should be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes as if the same had been done by said William Wilkinson; and that the said John Cradock and Samuel Owings, appointed under the act of assembly last mentioned, sold the land aforesaid agreeably to said act, and that the said William Lamar became the purchaser; that before the said William Lamar obtained a deed, the said John Cradock, joint trustee with said Samuel Owings, died: And whereas the said William Lamar has prayed that some person may be appointed in the place of the said John Cradock, to act in conjunction with the said Samuel Owings, to carry into effect the terms of sale made in pursuance of the act of assembly, entitled, An act to appoint a trustee in the place of William Wilkinson, of Baltimore county, who is dead;

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Owings be and he is hereby appointed a trustee in the place of John Cradock, deceased, and that the said William Owings be vested with as full and ample power and authority to execute the trust committed to the said Samuel Owings and John Cradock by the said recited act, as was committed to the said John Cradock thereby, and that all acts done by said William Owings, in conjunction with the said Samuel Owings, in execution of the said trust, be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been done by the said John Cradock. A trustee appointed, &c.

C H A P. XLIX.

An ACT to lay a tax on Cæcil county to complete the public buildings of said county. Passed January 20.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the commissioners for erecting the public buildings in Cæcil county, that they have advanced in completing said buildings more money than has been reimbursed by said county; therefore, Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of said county be and they are hereby empowered and directed to levy and assess, at their next session, on the assessable property of said county, such sum of money as shall appear to said court to be due to the said commissioners, and also the commission for the collection of the same, provided that the same do not exceed four hundred dollars. Court to levy money, &c.

C H A P. L.

An ACT to make a temporary allowance to the judges of the general court, in addition to their permanent salaries. Passed January 20.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the chief judge of the general court shall be entitled to receive four hundred dollars, and the other two judges shall each be entitled to receive six hundred and sixty-fix Additional allowance.