An ACT to authorise the justices of the levy court of Prince-George's county to levy a sum of money on the assessable property of said county for the purposes therein mentioned.

Passed Jan. 20.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of the justices and sundry inhabitants of said county, that the court-house in said county is in a ruinous state, and that there is no public gaol in said county; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the justices of the levy court for Prince-George's county for the time being, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to levy on the assessable property, except that part of the territory of Columbia laid out for the city of Washington, in said county, by two equal assessments, a sum of money not exceeding twelve thousand dollars, which sums so assessed shall be collected by the collectors of the county aforesaid as other levies are collected, and paid to the justices of the levy court for the time being for Prince-George's county, who are hereby authorized and empowered to apply the same, at their discretion, to the repairing the old court-house in said county, or to the building a new court-house in said county, and to the building of a gaol in said county, and to no other purpose whatever.

Justices to levy money.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the justices of the levy court of the said county for the time being shall contract with such persons as they may think proper, or authorize any two of said justices to contract, in any manner they may think best, for the building a new court-house, or repairing the old court-house, and for the building a public gaol, in said county, and shall take from the person or persons contracting with such justices sufficient security, in double the sum, for the performance of his or their contract; and in case the said justices should think it best to build a new court-house, they are hereby authorized and empowered to dispose of the old court-house in such manner as they may think best, applying the proceeds of the same to the building the new court-house and gaol in said county.

And contract for building a court-house, &c.
