No. 2

(Senate Joint Resolution 1)

Senate Joint Resolution ratifying the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States granting representation in the Electoral College to the District of Columbia.

WHEREAS, At the Second Session of the Eighty-sixth Congress of the United States of America, it was resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), this action having been taken in Senate Joint Resolution 39, that the following article be proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, to be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution only if ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

“ARTICLE ———

“Section 1. The District constituting the seat of Government of the United States shall appoint in such manner as the Congress may direct:

“A number of electors of President and ~~Vice-President~~ VICE PRESIDENT equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives in Congress to which the District would be entitled if it were a State, but in no event more than the least populous State; they shall be in addition to those appointed by the States, but they shall be considered, for the purposes of the election of President and ~~Vice-President~~ VICE PRESIDENT, to be electors appointed by a State; and they shall meet in the District and perform such duties as provided by the twelfth article of amendment.

“Section 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.” Therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland, That the foregoing amendment to the Constitution of the United States
