

equity of the tax situation, introduced in the Delaware General Assembly, House Bill No. 130 which would accord this exemption to residents of Maryland. This bill passed the House with a substantial majority but did not come out of the committee in the Senate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor of the State of Delaware and the General Assembly of Delaware, be urged to amend its income tax law so that residents of Maryland employed within Delaware will receive an exemption of wages, similar to the exemption now accorded residents of Delaware who are employed within the State of Maryland; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the State of Maryland be directed to send copies of this Resolution under the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, to the Governor of the State of Delaware, and to the two presiding officers of the two houses of the General Assembly of Delaware.

Approved March 23, 1961.

---

No. 14

(House Joint Resolution 20)

House Joint Resolution expressing deepest regrets over the passing of Millard E. Tydings.

The members of the General Assembly of Maryland are deeply sorrowful over the passing of the Honorable Millard E. Tydings.

Senator Tydings was one of the most able and respected public figures ever to represent the State of Maryland. He had a long and honorable career in the General Assembly of Maryland and in the Congress of the United States and for it he won wide respect and admiration.

He began his public career in the House of Delegates of Maryland and in 1920 was elected Speaker of the House. Later he served a term in the Senate of Maryland representing Harford County.

Meanwhile he had served on the Mexican border in 1916 and served in the United States Army during World War I. His military service was the basis for a life long interest military and naval affairs.

In 1926 Mr. Tydings was elected to the Senate of the United States beginning then 24 years of consecutive and outstanding service for his State and for the nation.

During the latter part of his senatorial career, he was chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee where he was considered one of the best informed men in the world on military affairs.

Much could be written and said in praising the public career and the personality of Millard E. Tydings. Perhaps the ability and the philosophy of this man may be summarized in two quotations from