No. 31

(House Joint Resolution 34)

House Joint Resolution requesting the Legislative Council to study the present limitations upon the payment of overtime to certain supervisory State employees.

WHEREAS, The present law, Article 100, Section 76, provides for the payment to certain State employees of extra compensation for hours worked in excess of forty hours in any week; and

WHEREAS, Said law provides that department heads with the approval of the Commissioner of Personnel are authorized and empowered to designate "those bona fide supervisory employees who actually exercise supervisory control over a major function within the respective departments * * * * who shall not be subject to the provisions of a forty hour week"; and

WHEREAS, The members of the General Assembly of Maryland are advised that in many instances employees are designated as exercising "supervisory control over a major function" and thus not entitled to overtime because of a very broad interpretation of the last quoted phrase; and

WHEREAS, It is the wish of the General Assembly of Maryland to make certain that the aforesaid statute is being properly and fairly administered and interpreted as said statute is now drawn; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Legislative Council be and it is hereby requested to (1) study thoroughly the administration and in the various State agencies of Article 100, Section 76, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957 Edition and 1960 Supplement, and particularly Sub-section (b) thereof, which empowers certain department heads and others to designate "those bona fide supervisory employees who actually exercise supervisory
