

the Revised Charter of Baltimore city, to follow Section 4, and to be designated 4-A, and to read as follows:

4-A. For the purposes of classification for city taxation and the levy of city taxes for the year 1917, and for each year thereafter down to and including the year 1926, all real and leasehold property which, under the provisions of Section 4 of said Revised Charter, would be classed as urban, and also all real and leasehold property which, under the provisions of said Section 4, would be classed as suburban, shall be classed as urban. All property of every kind which, under the provisions of said Section 4, would be subject to the city rate of taxation on real and leasehold property within the limits of Baltimore city as they existed prior to the passage of the Act of 1888, Chapter 98, and also all property of every kind which, under the provisions of said Section 4, would be subject to the two-thirds rate (not exceeding $1.30), as provided in said Section 4, shall, for the year 1917 and for each year thereafter down to and including the year 1926, be subject to the same rate as that which may be levied upon real and leasehold property within the limits of Baltimore city as they existed prior to the passage of the Act of 1888, Chapter 98. And all property which, under the provisions of said Section 4, would be subject to a rate equal to one-third of the rate of taxation of urban property (not less than 65 cents) shall, for the year 1917 and thereafter for each year down to and including the year 1926, be subject to a rate equal to two-thirds of the rate which may be levied upon real and leasehold property within the limits of Baltimore city as they existed prior to the passage of the Act of 1888, Chapter 98. For the year 1927 and thereafter, all property of every kind situate in that portion of Baltimore city annexed to said city by the Act of 1888, Chapter 98, and all property of every kind belonging to residents in said portion of Baltimore city shall be subject to the same rate as similar property situated in or belonging to residents within the limits of Baltimore city as they existed prior to the passage of the Act of 1888, Chapter 98." [Which was read and adopted.] [Which favorable report was adopted, which was read the second time and ordered printed for a third reading.]

Also favorably, with amendment,

SENATE BILL No. 447, BY THE PRESIDENT.

SUBJECT: MISCELLANEOUS LOCAL LAWS—BAIL—BALTIMORE CITY.
