The said bill was then sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Askew,

The rules were suspended and leave was granted the committee on Ways and Means to introduce a bill entitled, an act more effectually to protect the revenue of the State, and to give Justices of the Peace jurisdiction in certain cases relating thereto.

On motion of Mr. Valiant,

Leave was granted the committee on Ways and Means to introduce a bill entitled, an act to prevent the sale or barter, under license, to traders of goods, wares and merchandise, in any other place than a store or warehouse, and in a fixed place of business for such selling and bartering, being a further supplement to the act of 1827, chapter 117, entitled, an act to regulate the issuing of licenses to traders, keepers of ordinaries and others.

Mr. Frazier offered the following order:

Ordered, That the Committee on Claims be directed to close the journal of accounts on Wednesday next, the 5th inst.

Which was read and adopted.
