NEGATIVE—None.

The yeas and nays being demanded on the second resolution, which is as follows:

And be it further Resolved; That the assertion of His Excellency, that the state of society in the city of Baltimore, on the eve of the last election, was verging upon the fiercest anarchy; and that outrages, almost incredible in a civilized community, were then and there committed; and that an ubiquitous organization prevailed, by violence, to the exclusion of voters, at will, and controlled means and resources for the most pernicious and daring frauds; and "that such wrongs were perpetrated as have no parallel in the election annals of our country, but in Baltimore itself;" and this, too, "under the official assurance of municipal power, and of a police organization, and a plan of operations adequate to the emergency," unsustained as it is by evidence, we condemn as a libel upon the people of that great commercial metropolis of our State.
