So the order was adopted, and the order expunged.

Mr. Forrest offered the following order:

Ordered, That it be entered on the Journal that the Democratic members of the House have consumed a great deal of its time in useless political discussions.

Mr. Forrest called the previous question;

Which was not sustained;

Mr. Magruder moved that the whole matter be referred to the next General Assembly;

Which was determined in the affirmative.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

The House resumed the consideration the bill entitled an act to provide for taking the sense of the people upon the expediency of calling a convention to frame a new Constitution and form of Government for this State, and to provide for the election of delegates to said Convention.

On motion of Mr. Kilbourn,

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole;

Mr. Dail, of Dorchester, in the chair.

After some time spent in committee of the whole, the Speaker resumed the chair, and

Mr. Dail, chairman of the committee of the whole, reported that the committee had considered the bill, together with the proposition to strike out the second section thereof, and recommend that the bill pass without the proposed amendment;

Which was accepted.

Mr. Kilbourn then withdrew his motion to strike out the second section.

Mr. Alexander proposed the following amendment:
