

Mr. Clark leaves surviving his widow, Mary Sleman Clark, and two sons, Paul S. and Robert Duncan, Jr.; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the deepest sympathy of this body be expressed over the passing of R. Duncan Clark; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution are sent to Mrs. Mary Sleman Clark and to Paul S. and Robert Duncan Clark, Jr.

Approved February 26, 1963.

---

No. 6

(House Joint Resolution 14)

House Joint Resolution expressing sympathy on the death of Miss Ella R. Plummer.

Miss Ella R. Plummer, Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court of Montgomery County, died on December 16, 1962. At the time of her death she was 80 years of age.

She had been Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court since 1954, and had been re-elected to a third term in that position.

Miss Plummer was a life-long resident of Montgomery County, having been born in Gaithersburg, Maryland. She was the daughter of Samuel R. Plummer and Roberta P. Plummer.

Miss Plummer first became associated with the Orphans' Court of Montgomery County when she was appointed as a clerk to the Register of Wills in 1920. In 1923 she was appointed Deputy Clerk of the Register of Wills and in 1941 was appointed Chief Deputy in that office.

Miss Plummer was a charter member of the Tench Tilghman Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She was an active member of the Montgomery County Historical Society and the Grace Methodist Church in Gaithersburg.

Miss Plummer was a graduate of the Wesleyan Female Institute in Staunton, Virginia, and the Randolph Macon Institute in Danville, Virginia.

Miss Plummer leaves surviving her numerous nephews and nieces in Montgomery County and in Maryland. Her next of kin is her sister, Agnes P. Rhodes, Atlanta, Georgia; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the deepest sympathies of this body be expressed over the passing of Miss Ella R. Plummer; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be sent to Mrs. Agnes P. Rhodes, Atlanta, Georgia.

Approved February 26, 1963.