No. 27

(House Joint Resolution 31)

House Joint Resolution urging the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia to amend its income tax laws concerning the taxation of non-residents of the State of Virginia who work in that state.

WHEREAS, the State of Maryland and the Commonwealth of Virginia both impose income taxes on residents and non-residents; and

WHEREAS, many of the residents of these two states commute back and forth across the State line in the course of their employment; and

WHEREAS, both states have had reciprocal provisions under which tax credits were allowed by the non-resident state for the income tax payable to the state of residents; and

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth of Virginia by the enactment of Chapter 112 of the Virginia Acts of 1962 changed its income tax law so as to tax non-residents of that state who work in Virginia but do not live within the State; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia is urged to consider an amendment to the income tax laws of that state whereby the effect of Chapter 112 of the Virginia Acts of 1962 would be reversed; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of State of Maryland is directed to send copies of this Resolution under the Great Seal of the State of Maryland to the presiding officers of both Houses of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia and also to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Approved May 6, 1963.
