

The following persons were appointed on the Commission in the State of Maryland:

Bridgewater M. Arnold; John Carey; J. Cavendish Darrell; George W. Della; Kenneth H. Ekin; Carl Everstine; John R. Fitzpatrick; J. Edgar Harvey; M. King Hill, Jr.; Andrew J. Hundertmark; Frederick W. Invernizzi; Frank A. Kaufman; W. W. Lannahan; Frederick C. Malkus; Adrian L. McCardell; Elkan R. Myers; C. J. Newner; John R. Norris; Clarence A. Patterson; Edward J. Price; Mortin Robinson; Theodore E. Schluderberg; Roger W. Simpkins; Emory W. Slaughter; Woodrow F. Strong; Allan R. Wetzler; Perry O. Wilkinson; Harrison L. Winter; Gerald S. Wise and J. Francis Ireton.

The members of this Commission gave arduous and devoted service to a complete study of the Uniform Commercial Code. All of them had the highest zeal for the public service they were performing, and the job, when completed, was literally monumental. The task they performed was one which will long be of benefit to the citizens of this State, and for it they are due the appreciation and gratitude of the people of Maryland.

The chairman of the Commission was J. Francis Ireton, Esq. He spent long hours and inexhaustible energy in planning and attending to the work of the Commission, and is due a particular word of thanks.

In addition to expressing the appreciation of the State to the members of this Commission, the General Assembly recommends that the Commission be reappointed by the Governor to arrange and annotate for publication the Uniform Commercial Code and to handle such educational and informative programs as may be desired. The General Assembly also recommends that funds be provided to the Commission for editorial costs arising from the publication and annotation of the Code; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sincere gratitude and appreciation of the General Assembly and of every citizen of the State of Maryland be expressed to the members of the Commission to Study and Report on the Uniform Commercial Code; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of State of Maryland be directed to send copies of this Resolution to all members of the Commission, as listed above; and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor of Maryland be requested to reappoint this Commission in order that it may provide and annotate for publication the Uniform Commercial Code and take part in educational and informative programs to instruct the residents of the State as to its provisions; and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor of Maryland be requested, from contingent funds at his disposal, to provide funds necessary for the editorial work required in annotating and publishing the Uniform Commercial Code.
