NOTE

Eleven bills were vetoed by the Governor of Maryland following the 1964 Regular Session of the General Assembly. Eight of these bills originated in the Senate, and three were introduced into the House.

Following the provisions of Section 17 of Article 2 of the Constitution of Maryland, all vetoed bills must be referred to the House in which they originated immediately after the House shall be organized at the next regular or special session of the General Assembly of Maryland, for reconsideration.

A three-fifths vote of the members elected to each House is required to enact a bill over the veto of the Governor.
