SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That new Section 34A, be and it is hereby added to said Allegany County Code to follow immediately after Section 34 thereof to be under the subtitle "Circuit Court" and under the new subheading "Probation Officer," and to read as follows:

Probation Officer

34A.

The judges of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of Maryland shall appoint a suitable person to act as Probation Officer for the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, who shall receive such salary or compensation as may be fixed by such judges, and such additional traveling expenses as may be approved by the judges. The Probation Officer shall be at all times subject to the orders and directions, and shall be under the supervision of the appointing judges. In the execution of his office he shall be vested with all the privileges and authority of constables. He shall have the power to bring any child or children or any adults who may be on probation before the Circuit Court for Allegany County by a process or warrant duly sworn to charging him or them with violation of the terms or conditions of their probation, or by subpoena directed to them for further proceedings, and when such action is taken the Court may continue the proceedings and finally dispose of the same as fully as could have been done had there been no suspension of sentence or proceedings in the first place; provided, however, that in any case where a full trial or hearing has not been held and the charge has not been fully shown, sustained or determined before suspension of sentence or further proceedings, the Court shall hold the case under consideration before sentence is passed or a final disposition of the case is made. The Court shall have the authority to extend the term of probation for any time and such additional period as may be deemed proper, and may attach thereto the same, or additional terms and conditions, as were originally attached or may at any time dismiss the probationer and the proceedings in which sentence or further proceedings were originally suspended. The County Commissioners of Allegany County shall and are hereby directed to make all necessary levies and appropriations to pay the salary and expenses of the Probation Officer provided for in this section.
