CHAPTER 771

(House Bill 12)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 11 of Article 59 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Lunatics and Insane," subtitle "Insanity as a Defense in Criminal Cases," to extend the periods during which a person accused of crime may be held for examination of sanity by either the Department of Mental Hygiene or the superintendent of any mental hospital, and to state that such a person may question his detention during these periods by use of the writ of habeas corpus.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 11 of Article 59 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Lunatics and Insane," subtitle "Insanity as a Defense in Criminal Cases," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(a) Whenever any person shall be arrested and brought before a judge of any court of this State or before any justice of the peace of this State, having criminal jurisdiction, charged with any offense, and such person shall appear to be or be alleged to be insane or lunatic and shall be committed in default of bail to await further proceedings in such court or before such justice or elsewhere, the said judge or justice shall commit him to the jail of the county or city where the charge is pending, or to such institution for the care of the insane as may from time to time be designated by the Department of Mental Hygiene. The said Department of Mental Hygiene shall be notified of such commitment, and shall thereupon examine such person, and as soon as said Department shall determine whether such person is insane or lunatic, and in every case within [two weeks]
