CHAPTER 500

(Senate Bill 182)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Article II of Section 261A of Article 66 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Supplement), title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Fish and Fisheries", sub-heading "General Provisions—Compact of 1958", amending the laws concerning the jurisdictional boundaries of the Potomac River Compact in order to correct an error therein.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article II of Section 261A of Article 66 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Supplement), title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Fish and Fisheries", sub-heading "General Provisions—Compact of 1958", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article II. Jurisdictional Boundaries

The territory in which the Potomac River Fisheries Commission shall have jurisdiction shall be those waters of the Potomac River enclosed within the following described area:

Beginning at the intersection of mean low watermark at Point Lookout and an established line running from Smith's Point to Point Lookout, marking Chesapeake Bay waters; thence following the mean low water line of the shore northwesterly across the respective mouths of all creeks to Gray Point at the westerly entrance into Rowley Bay; thence in a straight line northwesterly to the southerly extremity of Kitts Point; thence along the mean low water line to the southwesterly point of St. Inigoes Neck; thence in a straight line westerly to the most easterly point of St. Georges Island; thence following the mean low water line in a general northwesterly direction, across the respective mouths of all creeks and inlets to the southwesterly point of Huggins Point; thence in a straight line
