INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

Senate Resolution No. 3—By Senator Roney:

Senate Resolution expressing the deepest regrets of the Senate of Maryland over the passing of the Honorable Guy Johnson.

The Members of the Senate of Maryland heard with deep regret of the passing of the Honorable Guy Johnson of Cecil County, a former Member of the Senate and also of the House of Delegates of Maryland.

Guy Johnson was an able and intelligent member of the Senate and served this body in the highest traditions of legislative statesmanship in Maryland.

In demeanor he was quiet and affable. He was known and respected by all of us as a gentle man and a gentleman.

Senator Johnson attended to the public's business with industry and fidelity. His legislative career completed an already illustrious career in the public school system of this State.

We honor his memory as legislator and educator. We in the State of Maryland are better for his having been among us; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Maryland, That the deepest regrets of this body be expressed over the passing of the Honorable Guy Johnson of Cecil County; and be it further
