No. 29

(Senate Joint Resolution 38)

Senate Joint Resolution requesting the Board of Public Works to seek recommendations for the development and use of the old Carvel Hall property in relation to Paca House.

The members of the General Assembly request the Board of Public Works to develop a program for the use of the old Carvel Hall property in Annapolis in conjunction with the Paca House.

In developing these recommendations and programs, the Board of Public Works is requested to consult with the State Planning Department, Historic Annapolis, Maryland Historic Trust and such other agencies and organizations as might assist in the development of such a program.

The Paca House, fronting on Prince George Street in Annapolis, is one of the most valuable examples in the entire City of late 18th Century architecture. It has a rich place in its heritage in the life of Maryland, and its use for many years as part of Carvel Hall Hotel has made it of strong interest to members of the General Assembly. It is vital that since the hotel portion of the property has been razed, some useful and beneficial program be devised to put all this property to the highest and best use for the community and State; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Board of Public Works is requested to seek information from the State Planning Department in cooperation with Historic Annapolis, the Maryland Historic Trust and any other interested agencies and organizations in developing a program for the use of the old Carvel Hall Hotel premises in relation to Paca House; and be it further

Resolved, That these several agencies are requested to cooperate with and report to the Board of Public Works in order that an outstanding program may be devised with maximum benefit and usefulness to the State of Maryland and the City of Annapolis.

Approved May 6, 1966.
