

tration—Registration—Titling”, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and to read as follows:

61.

(b) (1) From and after January 1, 1966, a license as a motor vehicle salesman shall be issued only to a salesman as defined in this article.

(2) No person shall be entitled to obtain a motor vehicle salesman’s license unless:

(i) The registered new or used car dealer furnishes written notice of appointment or employment acknowledged by both dealer and the salesman, and the applicant shall attach to the application an exact copy of the appointment; also, the registered new or used car dealer shall furnish written notice of expiration of appointment of a salesman;

(ii) Every licensed salesman shall provide acceptable evidence of a corporate bond in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for the use and benefit of the Department and public who may suffer or sustain any loss by reason of a violation of Sections 29, 46, 47, 49, 61, 62 or 63 of this Article by such salesman. The license of any salesman under this Article who fails to file acceptable evidence that the bond required herein has been extended prior to the date of expiration of the bond shall be automatically suspended, and the Department shall immediately notify such licensee and the dealer of the suspension;

(iii) The applicant shall furnish information concerning his true identity, business of selling motor vehicles, and any other pertinent facts which the Department may require;

(iv) And pay the fee for a salesman’s license of five dollars ($5.00) for each year or part thereof.

(3) An applicant for a license required by the provisions of this article shall file with the Department a written application which shall be signed and under oath. Each license shall set forth the name of the dealer for whom the salesman may transact any business of selling motor vehicles. No licensed salesman shall transact any business of selling motor vehicles for anyone other than the registered dealer specified on the license. If during the period for which such licenses are issued there should be any change in the factual information furnished by such application for license, such change shall be fully, truly, and promptly communicated to the Department in writing by the applicant under oath upon forms provided by the Department for that purpose.

(4) No person may engage in or transact any business of selling motor vehicles, or hold himself out to the public as doing any selling of motor vehicles, in this State, except in compliance with the [applicable] applicable provisions of this article. No person, whether subject to licensing by any law or otherwise, may engage in this State in any trade practice or other act which is a violation of subsection (b) (2) (ii) above. Every person who wilfully participates in a prohibited act or violation with knowledge if the same is subject to the criminal penalty therefor provided in this article.

(5) No dealer’s or salesman’s license shall be required of any individual who performs labor or services for a dealer for wages or
